Today's Readings

Epistle (1 Peter 4, 7-11)

Dearely beloved: Be prudent and watch in prayers. But before all things have a constant mutual charity among yourselves: for charity covereth a multitude of sins. Using hospitality one towards another, without murmuring: as every man hath received grace, ministering the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If any man speak, let him speak, as the words of God: if any minister, let him do it, as of the power which God administereth: that in all things God may be honored through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Gospel (St. John 15, 26, 27; 16, 1-4)

At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: When the Paraclete cometh, whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceedeth from the Father, He shall give testimony of Me: and you shall give testimony, because you are with Me from the beginning. These things I have spoken to you, that you may not be scandalized. They will put you out of the synagogues: yea, the hour cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doth a service to God. And these things will they do to you, because they have not known the Father, nor Me. But these things I have told you, that when the hour shall come, you may remember that I told you of them.

I read somewhere that, when a professional burglar breaks into your house, the first thing he does is go around and unlock all of the doors... just in case he has to make a hasty escape. I don't know what our young folks are escaping from, but as soon as they get into the parish hall, they go down the hall and unlock the side door (by the carport)... and most of the time, nobody thinks to lock it again after the event is over. If you are the last one out after the Sunday social activities or another event, please remember to lock all of the doors. Help keep (what's left of) our parish hall safe and secure! Thanks -Fr Valentine
